

PIONEER MUSEUM ▪ FREDERICKSBURG, TEXAS

Adventures at Pioneer Museum 2010

Enjoy exciting activities for students who will be entering 3rd through 5th grades in the Fall of 2010. Each day includes a craft, snack, games and hands-on educational activities. Camp instructor, Liz Brookshire, is an experienced teacher and camp director. Camp hours are 9:00 am to 12:00 pm. Registration closes on 1 week prior to each session.

Gone to Texas – Tuesday, July 6

Explore the journey from Germany to Texas in 1846. Why did they come and what did they find when they arrived in Fredericksburg? Learn how Fredericksburg was settled and the challenges faced by pioneers. A walking field trip to the Vereins Kirche is included.

Life on the Frontier – Tuesday, July 13

Discover what life was like for the pioneer children of early Fredericksburg. Experience washing clothes on a scrub board, churning butter and making rope. Learn how to make a corn husk doll.

School Days, School Days – Tuesday, July 20

Experience a day in a real one room schoolhouse. Learn simple German words and phrases. Take part in a spelling bee and play games pioneer children enjoyed during recess.

Good Old Fashioned Fun – Tuesday, July 27

Pioneer children learned how to make their own toys with limited materials and lots of imagination. Discover games and toys enjoyed by children from the 1840's to the 1920's.
